FROM THE PRESIDENT, NEGRIL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

resurrection of the recycling centre to name a few. The Negril Chamber of Commerce has once again become the voice of the community in an effort to keep it the destination of choice.

So welcome to the Negril – often referred to as the Capital of Casual of Jamaica. It became a popular destination for the hippies in the late 60's and early 70's who loved the laid back atmosphere and natural beauty.

The Chamber is delighted to restart its publication and trust you will find the articles relevant and informative.

Dear Friends

The Negril Chamber of Commerce is proud to be once again publishing the Negril Guide and trust that it will be useful for our first time visitors and repeat guests alike. The Chamber was dormant for a number of years and thus there was no Guide. The Chamber is delighted to restart it's publication and trust you will find the articles relevant and informative.

This year, Jamaica has decriminalized the use of marijuana and we have added information on what exactly this means to our locals and visitors and trust that you will enjoy these changes safely. The Chamber is involved in numerous social and environmental projects such as the breakwater project protest, the sidewalk for the kids by the All Age School, and the Negril as the most western town on the island is famous for its dazzling sunsets and its world famous Seven Mile beach. It is unique as the long stretch of beach allows our visitors to walk and experience a taste of the real Jamaica, mingling with locals and sampling true Jamaican hospitality.

It is juxtaposed by the cliffs, where resorts are tucked away on the honeycomb rock and restaurants offer delicious local dishes while affording beautiful vistas along the rugged coastline.

Thank you for making it Negril and we trust that your holiday here will be enjoyable and memorable and that this Guide will prove useful to you.

One love!

Mr. Lee Issa

President Negril Chamber of Commerce.

THE NEGRIL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Welcomes You.....

Our warmest welcome to Negril. Jamaica is beautiful, but Negril is special in our hearts as we continue to work tirelessly to protect its environment, to develop its infrastructure, to improve our social fabric and to strive on to offer an even higher standard of service for all to enjoy.

Negril- Jamaica's jewel in the crown, where our open 7 mile beach entices you to walk, to swim, to play...and to make friends.

Our rugged cliff side on the West End bursts into fire at sunset in many bars and restaurants, whilst the peaceful afternoons show off the many caves and diving areas. Negril is unique in its equal ambit of beach and cliff, its numerous eccentric characters, its laid back atmosphere, and its friendliness!

Like the sun setting dramatically over the sea, and returning each morning, we hope that you will return after sampling the diversity that is Negril.

Have a great holiday!

Water Resources Authority, the quality is among the best in the world, prompting many cruise ships to take water only in Jamaica.

HISTORIC NEIGHBOUR

Visitors driving from Montego Bay to Negril will pass through the town of Lucea.

A landmark in the town is the Lucea town clock, made in 1817 and located on the Lucea courthouse. It was ordered for the island of St. Lucia and shipped in error to Lucea. Because of its beauty, the city fathers refused to return it and paid for it with money raised by public subscription. The clock tower was a gift from a German landowner; the design is based on the helmet worn then, by the Royal Guards of Germany.

THE NATIONAL BIRD

The Jamaican national bird is the Doctor Bird (Trochilus polytmus). The “Doctor Bird” or Swallow tail Humming Bird lives only in Jamaica and is one of the most outstanding of the 320 species of Humming Birds. It is quite beautiful with a brilliant emerald green body, and coral and black-tipped beak set in sharp contrast to its coal-black head. The Doctor Bird beats its wings approximately 20-25 times per second. Its tail feathers and the whirring sound it makes as it flies, allows this Hummingbird to be easily identified. It is well to note that the beautiful feathers of these birds have no counterpart in the entire bird population and produce iridescent colours characteristics of that family. The Doctor Bird has been immortalized for many decades in Jamaican folklore and song. It is easy to see feeding off all kinds of flowers.

JAMAICAN PROTECTED SPECIES

Jamaica is attempting to protect its natural resources. Please do not support the illegal trade.

PARROT

The Black and Yellow Billed Parrots are found nowhere else in the world. They choose their mates for life and are generally seen in pairs or small flocks. Parrots feed on a variety of plants including fruits, nuts, and berries. They are threatened by sale to the illegal pet trade and destruction of their habitats.

YELLOW SNAKE

The Jamaican Boa lives in forests, wetlands and dry scrub-land across the island. The Yellow Snake is threatened by deforestation and the burning of cane fields. They are also attacked by dogs and mongoose, and are killed by man in the mistaken belief that they are dangerous.

MANATEE or SEA COW

The Manatee is a mammal which is believed to have been the source for stories of the existence of mermaids. Manatees possess a gentle nature and there are reports that they have saved people from drowning by pushing them up to the surface on their backs. Their main enemy is man, who slaughters them for their meat.

LOGGERHEAD TURTLE

The various species of sea turtles reach adulthood after 20-30 years and may live up to 100. Sea turtles are sought for their eggs, meat, oil, leather and their shells which are used for jewelry. They are threatened by sea grass destruction, plastic waste and other pollution in coastal waters.

HISTORY OF NEGRIL

The unofficial headquarters for Jamaica's fun-in-the-sun vacationers; freewheeling Negril gives new meaning to casual. Shed your cares, your watch, even your sense of time.

Visitors seek out the “Capital of Casual” on the island's western tip to discard the baggage of standard vacations and discover a funky dual holiday in one location.

By day, patches of bright emerald and turquoise in our near shore waters transform into shades of royal blue out to the horizon. Such dazzling colours, a rarity up north, make visitors want to take the plunge. And they do: jumping in from the beaches, boats and especially off the cliffs on the town's West End. Visitors wiggle their toes in the soft sands on the beach side of town. Snorkelers and swimmers delight in it all.

By dusk, beach and cliffside visitors with camera in hand “ooh” and “aah” at hypnotic sunsets. Night unfolds; revelry begins. Lobster and fish that swarm waters in the morning grace the dinner table in the evening. Entertainment heats up with live cultural and reggae shows.

Once upon a time pirates sailed the waters off Punta Negrilla – so dubbed by the Spanish for the black conger eels in the rivers, or maybe for the dark cliffs, depending upon who spins the story. In 1720 raucous buccaneer Calico Jack Rackham was seized in Negril and later hanged in Port Royal. In the 1800s whalers butchered their catches in Bloody Bay, a crescent-shaped bay on the north end. In 1959 there still was no road to sleepy Negril.

But in 1960, the hippies changed things, establishing the town's casual reputation. Soon came development and the boom was on. In the 1990s, Negril became mainstream when all-inclusive resorts arrived along the spectacular seven-mile beach.

Rustic boutique-style resorts, cottages and funky restaurants sprang up on the cliffs over the years, and many atmospheric inns remain today.

EXPLORING NEGRIL

Negril makes it easy to get from place to place. The town's three major roads converge at the roundabout called the Negril square...

The beach road (Norman Manley Boulevard) feeds north from the roundabout past beach resort towards Montego Bay. West End Road, now called One Love Drive, winds its way past in-town shopping plazas, then southwest past cliff resorts to the Negril Lighthouse and beyond. Visitors need not wait long to hail a taxi in Negril. Just stand by the road and by the time you count to three you'll probably have one. If the vehicle tag is red he's a licensed and insured cabbie. If not, hold out for one. Word of advice: negotiate your fare in either US or Jamaican dollars before stepping into a cab.

Get out discover the island and mingle with the Jamaicans by renting a vehicle.

WHERE TO STAY...

The diverse landscape provides a range of choices, from the seven miles of pearl-white sand to coal-black cliffs that frame parts of the coastline.

There simply is no place on the planet like Negril. The diverse landscape provides a range of choices, from the seven miles of pearl-white sand to coal-black cliffs that frame parts of the coastline. Resorts are equally varied, from picturesque little villas to boutique inns; from rustic lodges to luxurious all-inclusive.

There truly is something for everyone, and regardless of whether you're at the west end (southwest) or along the beach (north), everyone has a perfect view of the legendary sunset.

There is only one rule of thumb: if you want peace and quiet, try the hilltop and cliff inns. For a vacation in the heart of everything, stay in or near the town centre. Longing for a lot of beach in your stay? Especially if you have kids, choose a beach resort.

Hotels & Resorts

Following is a guide to the three general areas of Negril. Whichever you choose, prepare to have the time of your life!

THERE SIMPLY IS NO PLACE ON THE PLANET LIKE NEGRIL.

ON THE BEACH

Along Norman Manley Boulevard (in alphabetical order):

Nobody's closer to the water than CHARELA INN (957-4648), a Spanish-style hacienda next to a wide gorgeous beach with its own pool. The proud owners are community leaders who also run Le Vendome Restaurant.

COCO LA PALM (957-4227) has as many amenities as you could need in a Negril beach resort, including Jacuzzi, water sports and a great seaside eatery named Manley's by the Sea.

CRYSTAL WATERS VILLAS (957-4284), has one, two and three-bedroom villas, each with its own trained housekeeper/cook to take care of your space and please the palate with tasty Caribbean dishes. The resort lies in the centre of the beach, within easy walking distance of water sports facilities, hotels, restaurants and nightlife (including live Reggae). After a short ride into town, you can shop, browse the crafts for sale, or dine at your choice restaurant, if you desire a different setting from the villa.

FUN HOLIDAY RESORT (957-3585) has a name that says what's in store: more than 40 rooms, a seafood restaurant at beachside, reggae band, exciting fire dancers, swim-up pool bar and Jacuzzi, plus water sports.

Set on a near-perfect beach, well vegetated and dressed in the red, green and gold of reggae, IDLE AWHILE (957-3302) has personal services and large suites, plus access to the generous sports facilities at Couples Swept Away.

KUYABA (957-4318), swings your vacation into Paradise with rooms for all occasions: romance; family; and plain

DINING

Dining in a foreign country is always a new experience with new smells and new tastes to try. All Jamaicans are great chefs offering mouth-watering fresh foods and succulent tropical fruits. We have our own spicy jerk sauces, a real adventure for your plate. We have many places to eat from small shops and jerk chicken stands to elegant open air dining all with a distinct Caribbean flavour. Negril offers dining experiences to suit every palate and budget.

Other Jamaican specialities include Calaloo, which is spinach-like and usually steamed with onion, sweet peppers and seasoned to taste. The National Dish is Ackee and Saltfish (codfish), and is wonderful with fried dumplings and plantain. Ackee is considered a Jamaican delicacy and can be seen growing in large red pods on Ackee trees. The yellow portion of the fruit is boiled and cooked together with seasoning and saltfish. The staple of fast food around Negril is the JAMAICAN PATTY, a pastry crust filled with chicken, beef, veggie, even fish, they are baked or fried. Patties can range from agreeable mild to aggressively spicy. Soups are, oh, “soooooo” good. Names like pepperpot, red pea, gungo pea and calaloo are truly unique and tasty. Jerk barbecue is a Jamaican treat not to be missed. Jerking will add a kick to chicken, lamb, pork fish and even vegetables. The seasoning is more complex than just a fiery scotch bonnet pepper. It fuses scallions, black pepper, allspice, nutmeg and more.

Most people agree that JAMAICAN BLUE MOUNTAIN COFFEE ranks among the world's best, rich but not bitter; "smooth" but not wimpy. Perfect beans result from skilled planters and roasters, plus the cool temperatures, abundant sunshine, rich soil and gentle rain fall in the mountains of eastern Jamaica.

BARS

RUM is among the island's five finest and largest exports and Appleton is the island's leading brand. Appleton Estate dates back to 1655 and offers tours where visitors can take home a complimentary bottle. Kick back and cool off with Jamaica's most essential libation, Red Stripe beer. It's the perfect accompaniment to any occasion or meal (especially the spicy ones).

A unique and refreshing local soft drink is Ting, made with grapefruit juice.

Tropical Treats

Get a taste of the tropics through our fresh produce. On the last Wednesday of each month a lively and colourful farmer's market is held near the town centre. Try home-cooked Ital (all natural) in a Rastafarian restaurant, ice-cold coconut jelly from a colourful fruit stand or roasted breadfruit.

Beach view or Cliff view the beauty is endless in Negril.

SHOPPING

Art and crafts abound in Jamaica and everyone should try to take a little piece of our island home with them as a memory or gift. Beautiful wood carvings, hand painted pottery, woven baskets, sarongs, beach towels and T-shirts are all available at the many shops along the road as well as at the three major craft market areas.

A Fi Wi Plaza, which means “our place” is officially called Vendors’ Plaza and is conveniently located a few blocks west of the roundabout. This bustling hive of shops is a great place to practice your negotiation tools while enjoying a nice cold jelly coconut.

The two big outdoor Crafts Markets can fill the day with shopping as entertainment. All the vendors call out, “Come give me a look, mon”. From inside the packed stalls burst treasures galore, all anxious to go home with visitors. Negril Crafts Market with its huts lining the Negril River by the roundabout, has a wide choice of carvings, jewellery, art and other souvenirs.

To the north of Negril, near the aerodrome, you’ll find the open-air Rutland Point Crafts Market, another good choice for vibrant local art, clothing, straw items and a huge selection of carvings. Opposite Bourbon Beach on Norman Manley Boulevard is Time Square Mall, offering duty-free shopping ready with electronics, crystal, china, leather and exotic jewellery you may not find anywhere else.

NEGRIL ATTRACTIONS

Westmoreland is a nature lover's paradise.

You don't need to be an athlete to enjoy the range of activities in and around Negril: stroll the beach; jump a cliff; snorkel the reef; or just lay back anywhere along the coast and watch the glorious sunsets.

Visitors who climb the steep 103 steps to the top of the 66 foot tower are rewarded with beautiful views of cliff-side Negril. RASTA CANNABIS

This is all a part of enlightening others about their movement, accomplishments and struggles over the years.

Jamaica recently decriminalized the use of marijuana and is forging ahead with the relevant laws and this brings exciting changes for both locals and visitors.

The Rastafarian movement has been very instrumental in these changes, and in particular, the Westmoreland Hemp and Ganja Farmers Association, under the leadership of Ras Iyah V and his Rastafari in ality group.

Thus the Rastafari Rootzfest has been inaugurated and is scheduled to be held November 12 through 15, 2015. It will highlight the history of Rastafari, showcasing their culture, food, the rites and rituals that embody this religious order that originated in Jamaica. This is all a part of enlightening others about their movement, accomplishments and struggles over the years.

A part of this Rootzfest will also be to host the first ever High Times Cannabis Cup in Jamaica. It is widely known that marijuana is used in the rituals of the Rastafari and is seen as a sacred plant that enhances understanding. The four day educational cannabis Rastafari celebratory and observance event, comprising of day and nighttime activities, will include: consumer expo, trade show, two celebratory concerts, seminars and the world renowned High Times Cannabis Cup Competition. This event is staged as provided for in the Dangerous Drugs Amendment Act 2015.

Rastafari Rootzfest hosting the High Times

Cannabis Cup will bring together a diverse group of people, industry stakeholders local and international, knowledge seekers, advocacy groups, media, government stakeholders, businesses, tourist, celebrities, and industry experts to name a few.

Extensive and careful planning is being done to create the best platform to present Jamaica ganja culture to the world in the best light, showcasing the best of Rastafari, Grassroots people, Jamaica and Jamaica Ganja opportunities.

The Negril Chamber of Commerce has endorsed this festival and trusts that it will also serve to erase the unfounded fears and prejudices this group has endured for many years.

SPA, HEALTH & BEAUTY

Local HAIR BRAIDING makes an unmistakable souvenir of Jamaica. Members of the Negril Hair Braiders Association, on the beach near Charela Inn, can braid visitors' locks in no time 881-2849. For most vacationers, the only threats to HEALTH are sunburns and dehydration. Use sunscreen and stay hydrated. Be sure to drink plenty of water, which is safe and even tastes good here. To find a helpful pharmacy, try Baywatch 957-3941, on the West End Road between Vendor's Plaza and Sunshine Village Complex, with all the basic lotions and potions, plus prescriptions and special orders.

Stay in shape on vacation by WORKING OUT at the Negril Gym, 957-4323, Aquarius Fitness Centre, or visit the sports complex at Couples Swept Away, 957-4061.

JOGGING can be a pleasant and rewarding kind of exercise on the beach, especially if you're preparing for the annual Reggae Marathon taking place every December. To get pampered with seaside MASSAGE, manicure, yoga and other therapies, plus a healthy lunch, try Jackie's on the Reef, three miles past the lighthouse 957-4497. You can also catch up on some relaxing reading. As a Rockhouse Foundation project, the Negril Public Library on One Love Drive (beside the Negril All Age School) has been upgraded to include computer facilities and has many new book titles.

SPA

Beach massage therapy brings with it many advantages and important health benefits. It's a fact that beach massage therapy can actually help you maintain physical, emotional, and psychological well-being especially if a massage is received on a frequent basis.

Beach massage therapy can reduce anxiety as well as tension resulting from stress.

A Beach massage tends to improve blood circulation and allows more oxygen and nutrients to be delivered to all the cells in the body.

Beach massage therapy also works with the human lymphatic system allowing waste products to be removed from the body with greater ease.

A Beach massage also prevents muscle cramps as well as muscle spasms providing individuals with a looser feeling in their limbs.

Beach massage therapy can also help control and manage pain stemming from things like arthritis, sciatica, and persistent muscle spasms.

Some individuals actually feel guilty about getting a massage and we encourage those individuals to remind themselves of all the health benefits that a beach massage has.

It's also important to remember that while the benefits of a Beach massage are many, no massage should be considered a type of cure-all treatment. Massage will not work for those individuals who have a fever, any type of infection, inflammation, osteoporosis, or other serious medical conditions. Therefore, if an individual is unsure about whether or not a massage is right for them, the best course of action to take is to speak with a massage therapist before making any final decisions.

NEGRIL ANIMAL CLINIC

There are a number of feral cats and stray dogs living in Negril, and are often seen scampering around properties and all along the beach. For this reason, the Negril Spay & Neuter Clinic was started by a group of volunteers – some local and some foreign. The group hosts free spay and neuter clinics in Negril, and these are strictly operated on the generous donations of animal lovers.

The group also affords stray animals that have been injured to be seen by a veterinarian, to receive the necessary care to make them healthy. They have established feeding stations in Negril and purchase the food to keep these stations operational.

An educational programme has also been initiated in the local schools, to teach the children to love and the proper care and control of their animals. The goal of the group is to provide a fair chance at a better life for the animals of Negril. There have even been some recent adoptions, with dogs going to reside overseas.

Should you care to learn more about our programme, we can be found at the following Facebook page:
www.facebook.com/groups/889837081039930/
www.negrilanimalhaven.wix.com/spayandneuter

The goal is to establish an office and safe haven for the animals in Negril, and the land has already been identified and a container obtained. Funding is required to convert the container into a surgery and office and to fence the land and secure it. For those interested in donating to this worthy cause, the following link can be used. www.gofundme.com/k2nvr4
